

REVISED ROMAN MISSAL RESOURCES

There are a wide variety of resources available on the translation of the Roman Missal, Third Edition. Below are a few our office thinks you would find most helpful. There are certainly others, please let us know if you discover another helpful resource.

Children/Teens

And With Your Spirit: Songs for Deepening Children's Understanding of the Mass \(CD 1080\)

Catechist's Companion: About the Revised Roman Missal Primary Grades \(BK LITGEN KELLM 2011A\)

Catechist's Companion: About the Revised Roman Missal Intermediate \(BK LITGEN KELLM 2011\)

Catholic Parent Know How

--For Primary grades

--For Intermediate grades

Welcoming the Roman Missal, Third Edition, by Beth Belcher

--For Busy Parents and their young children

--For Youth and Young Adults

What's New about the Mass (BK LITGEN KELLM 2011B)

--Teacher's Manual and accompanying Student Guide

What's New about the Mass for Teens (BK LITGEN KELLM 2011D)

--Teaching Manual and accompanying Student Guide

The Mass Explained for Kids—40 page brochure that gives a line by line explanation of the new mass changes in kid-friendly manner. Ideal for ages 7-11.

Come and See/Vengan y verán—video and accompanying leaders guide enrich our understanding of the mass and the vital role each person is invited to play. For best results use the leader guide with the video—great for Sacramental Preparation as well.

Praying the Mass with Children and Adolescents a Catechist's Guide to the New Translation

--Lesson Plans developed by Diocese of Lansing—free download

Today's Catechetical Leader Newsletter Series

--Every month from September 2010 will highlight activities and information related to the Roman Missal, Third Edition.

FREE activity sheets from LTP can be used in conjunction with What's New about the Mass, or anything else

Free Video Resource for junior high and high school students and from LifeTeen. Engaging video presents a practical way to understand the difference between formal and dynamic equivalency. Videos for Parents and Youth Ministers provide more detailed explanations.