VC 7017  12 Min JSA	Open Wide the Doors to Christ: A Personal Reflection on the Jubilee Year 2000 United States Catholic Conference, 1998  What does the year 2000 mean to me? Designed as a tool for parish and personal reflection, this video represents a way to help people think about the meaning of the year 2000 and the coming new millennium in their own lives. We are invited to consider the justice dimensions of jubilee - to reach out to those who are poor and homeless and who need our assistance. This is one way in which we can open wide the doors of our lives to Jesus Christ.
VC 6996  11 Min A	Open Wide the Doors Resources for Christian Living, 1998  Perhaps you have heard or read about the term, Jubilee Year 2000. Are you wondering what this celebration means to you, your family, your parish and the Church in the world of the Third Millennium? This video resource will help you start preparing for this celebration. It is meant as a way to help people know that there are concrete practical ways to make the next period of time leading to this momentous year as fulfilling and meaningful as possible. Narrated by Most Reverend Wilton D. Gregory, S.L.D. and Maureen A. Kelly.	Good ideas for celebrating Jubilee in liturgy, parish and family activities
33C  9 Min SA	Proclaim Jubilee: Break the Chains of Debt Bread for the World, 1999  The story of one family in a third-world country struggling and how that country's debt to other wealthier countries affect the people.
VC 7022  14 Min A	Global Solidarity: A Framework for Parishes United States Catholic Conference, 1998  As our world grows increasingly interdependent, the suffering of our sisters and brothers in other lands touches us more immediately and deeply. The U.S. bishops' statement, "Called to Global Solidarity: International Challenges for U.S. Parishes," offers support for U.S. parishes to act on the gospel mandate to care for all of God's people, wherever they live. This statement is summarized in video format. The bishops suggest that global solidarity can be woven into what parishes are already doing – prayer, preaching, education, service and action.	Supplement available. Gives suggestions for using the video and discussion questions.

VC 6868 13 Min All	The Earth is the Lord's United States Catholic Conference, 1995 Together, all of us are called to accept responsibility in Christ to contribute to the restoration and protection of a healthy society and environment. With vivid images of the natural gifts of the earth, which reveal the Creator's wisdom and beauty, this video calls us to be accountable for what we do - or fail to do - to respect, preserve, and care for God's presence in human life and all creation.	Supplement available. Gives ideas how to use video for all age groups, a prayer service, discussion questions, and additional resources
VC 6669 30 Min I	The Happy Prince Family Home Entertainment (now NEST) Reader's Digest presents this stirring story of good deeds by Oscar Wilde. Flying south for the winter, a swallow alights on a statue of the Happy Prince, but sees that the prince is not joyful at all - he is crying for the poor people of his city. The statue asks the little bird to strip away the gold and jewels that adorn him and to distribute them to the needy. The vain little swallow must now choose between his flight to the warm south and the task that will test his devotion.	Nicely animated. Good way to introduce Jubilee concept of justice and caring for the less fortunate to this age level.
