

2010 Girl Scout Red Sash of Merit*

NOMINATION FORM

Due by December 15, 2010 – use additional sheets and attachments as needed.

[Note: In completing the Nomination Form, the Girl Scout you are nominating is known as the “Nominee” and you are termed the “Sponsor.”]

The Girl Scout Red Sash of Merit is intended to serve as award for a select number of outstanding Catholic Girl Scouts in the Diocese of Columbus. It is not something that the girls work toward, but rather an award which requires a girl to be nominated. The Catholic Committee on Girl Scouts and Camp Fire selects recipients based upon the nominations received. A limited number of awards will be made each year.

The Girl Scout Red Sash of Merit should be awarded to a Girl Scout who is very active in Girl Scouting, has completed the Marian Medal, demonstrates leadership, and accepts responsibility well. The nominee should already have been confirmed at the time of her nomination.

The Catholic Committee on Girl Scouts and Camp Fire thanks you for your initiative and for taking your invaluable time to prepare and submit this nomination. After your nomination is received, the Girl Scout Selection Committee will inform you of its decision concerning your nominee. If she is selected, the Girl Scout Red Sash of Merit will be presented during “Scout Day with the Bishop” at Resurrection Parish, New Albany, 3:00 p.m., January 23, 2011.
